Summer winds and storms are the best known cure for backward-looking. The most chronic case of wishing for the good old days seldom survives one good blow or bolt that lays the wires low or gets the light and power on the two party line. An appetite for the old fashioned ways and customs finds little to feed on the up-to-date world, which explains the unkind comparisons between present and past with the past getting the worst of it.

One can easily get all sentimental and sobby reminiscing about the good old candle-light days when the family gathered around the open fireplace instead of scattering among the beer joints. But let the electric lights go out for one night at the behest of the boisterous fellow Thor and these reveries about the soft glow of the candle flame are forgotten in the heat of indignant conversation with the light company.

Failure of the electric service for a few hours is the major disaster in the modern home. So seldom does it occur that few homes prepare for the emergency. Nor can they meet it completely. There are no candles or oil lamps to replace the darkened bulbs. The old fashioned flatiron went for junk years ago. Cooking, heating and refrigeration all depend upon poles, wires and generators in. Even toast and coffee are dependent upon poles, wires and generators in most households. Yes, the good old days and the good old fashioned ways would be nice again if we could have them with all modern improvements.

Fifty years hence, a writer assures us, the milk cow will be replaced by a milk producing machine. This factory milk will be pure and not lacking in nutritive elements. It will be cheaper, too. Science is truly marvelous, and there is nothing more astonishing than the number of plans which is has advanced for consigning the cow to oblivion.

A decade ago an English concern announced that it would make milk from grass and we were asked to provision great loads of hay being driven into one end of an industrial plant and an endless chain of bottles filled and sealed, emerging from the other. Later the soy bean was hailed as the source of our milk supply, and we are told that this legume of the Far East would make the cow as dead as the dodo. Then Roger Babson predicted that by 1950 we would be getting our cheese and butter from Kerosene.

So far as can be seen, there is practically nothing between the old cow and extinction except a division of opinion among the experts on how it is to be accomplished. Another minor item is that science hasn't yet mastered the trick of slicing a T-bone steak from a fly wheel, extracting a rib roast from an oil can or making a Chinese bean taste like a beef tenderloin. Until science has all the answers, we will cleave to the cow, and yield our laurels only to the inventor who is able to produce synthetic pork chops at something under 25c per squeal.

GEORGE RICHARDS SHOT; RABY HILL FACING CHARGES

George Richards, 56, Fire Marshal and night policeman was shot to death while making an arrest at 1 a. m. Sunday in the street near the entrance of the Newport Cafe.

Raby Hill, owner of the Cafe surrendered to Sheriff R. M. Kennedy shortly after the shooting and was placed in jail.

Officers said that Richards witnessed a traffic violation by Erskine Hill, brother of the cafe owner, and as the driver came to park at the curb near the front entrance of the cafe, Richards accosted him and an argument followed. Richards then according to witnesses, placed Hill under arrest and was preparing to take him to jail. Richards is said to have grabbed Hill by the arm and a struggle ensued. Raby Hill saw the men near the curb, and according to officers, came out and opened fire on the officer.

Pruitt was driving a model T Ford sedan. His car crashed a truck driven by T. E. Trailer of Temple heavily loaded with eggs and butter and en was completely exonerated. Investigation, according to officers showed that the truck was driven to the brink of a ditch at the roadside to avoid the crash and that Pruitt's car swerved into the truck apparently without reason.

Lige Harris, negro, was with Trailer on the truck. Neither of the men were injured. The Pruitt car was almost completely demolished and the truck was badly damaged and thrown across the highway.

PRINCIPLES OR POPULARITY?

Dear Louise:-

We have just moved to a new place and have not met many people socially. One woman has been very nice to us and has been instrumental in having us invited to several parties. I want people to like us and am glad to do my share in entertaining, but here is my problem. Neither my husband nor I drink and that seems to be the main enjoyment of our new friends. I hate to give up my principles but on the other hand a strange town can be a lonesome place for two people who do not fit.

Answer:
Never give up your principles for a little cheap popularity. Usually, however, there are two sets in even small towns—those who go in for hard drinking and those who do not. Why not join the civic and patriotic clubs or other organizations which will bring you in contact with more people?

On the other hand, if the place you live in is so small that there is only one set, it might be wise to try to adapt yourself. Now by this I do not mean to give up your principles, but if you don't care to drink, just say, "No, thanks," or say that you can't take alcohol, and let it go at that. Most people who have cocktail parties are generally considerate enough of their guests to have some non-alcoholic beverage for those who do not like strong drinks. Personally, I have never felt the least embarrassed refusing alcohol. Some people like seafood, others do not; it agrees with some folks and some it doesn't. We never insist on a person eating something that disagrees with him or that he doesn't want, so why insist on him drinking something that he doesn't want?

Whatever you decide, you will have to take into consideration your own strength of character and that of your husband. Are you easily led into doing things you disapprove of and what will be the effects? There are some people who do anything to be with the crowd although they may arrive at such a conclusion step by step. There are some people who drink moderately and who do not seem to be greatly harmed by it, but there are others to whom alcohol has meant sorrow, poverty and the loss of everything worthwhile. In other words, liquor is a dangerous thing to trifle with.

If you feel, however, that you can go with this new crowd and still hold to your ideals, make up your mind not to have that holier-than-thou attitude. Just remember that you are not obliged to associate with them and if you choose to do so bear in mind that you are a guest and not a director of public morals. When you return their hospitality you may do then as you see fit and it is up to them to show the same tolerance and consideration of your way of entertaining as you did of theirs.

YOEMEN DEMONSTRATE POWER IN MARLIN VICTORY

COACH WOODS SENDS MAROON MACHINE DOWN GLORY PATA TO WIN

Playing their first game of the season Cameron Yoemen won an impressive victory over Marlin Friday night by the one sided score of 19 to 0. Any advance speculation over the strength of Coach Wood's 1935 eleven, has been dispelled by rugged performance and jam up football.

The 1935 Yoemen in their first game of the season gave promise of exceeding the 1934 team. That Cameron, district champions for 1934, are to be reckoned with in a big way is no longer scouted by sports writers. The 1935 Yoemen have arrived.

Here is a play by play report of the Marlin game:

First Quarter
It was a toss up for advantage and Marlin defending the south goal kicked to Cameron's 15 yard line where Joe McLean, Yoemen back, received the ball and ran it back to Cameron's 36 yard line. Simmie Smith, playing at quarter, hit right tackle for one yard. Jimmie Stewart, playing his first game under maroon colors, took the next serving from Perrin at center and went through the center of the line for 3 yards. On the fourth down Joe McLean fell back and passed to Shirley McLean, right end, but the pass was batted down and the ball went over the goal and was brought back to the 20 yard line.

Marlin's Ball
Marlin punted to their 40 yard line where the ball was covered by Marlin man. Here began a punting duel between Ironhead Brown and Joe McLean with the Yoemen gaining much yardage.

Cameron's Ball
Joe McLean lost 4 yards on an attempted pass. Stewart then took the ball for no gain. A pass from McLean to Earl Perk was blocked. Joe put his toe on the ball and lifted it to the 42 yard line.

Marlin's Ball
Brown retaliated by kicking to Simmie Smith on Cameron's 30 yard line.

Cameron's Ball
Coach Wood sent in Captain Breeding to relieve Smith. The Yoemen flash, running with a braced knee, was taken from the game a moment later when he attempted a pass but found his men covered and ran with the ball. He was tackled hard and was carried from the field. Smith went back into the game and McLean kicked to Marlin.

Marlin's Ball
Brown kicked to John Davis who was downed on the Yoemen's 11 yard line.

Cameron's Ball
McLean tried a play from scrimmage off right tackle but made no gain. McLean then kicked to Marlin's 45 yard line where the ball was caught by Sudbury who was downed in his tracks.

Marlin's Ball
Marlin kicked on the first down and the ball was recovered behind the line. Brown then picked up 2 yards over right tackle. Brown then kicked to Joe McLean who made a 15 yard return after Ogden had tried the Yoemen line for no gain.

Cameron's Ball
Joe McLean then picked up two yards off right tackle, then Smith, playing quarter, failed to gain at center. The Bulldog's line was holding. McLean then punted as the quarter ended. Score Yoemen 0, Bulldogs 0.

SECOND QUARTER
Marlin's Ball
Brown who proved the sensation of the game for Bulldog play, went over left tackle for 7 yards but Marlin was given a 5 yard penalty for off sides. Brown then went through right tackle for 13 yards and a first down. He then got 3 yards over left tackle but was stopped hard by Jimmie Stanislaw. On a bad pass from center Marlin lost 3 yards. Brown then kicked to the Yoemen's 2 yard line where the ball was killed.

Cameron's Ball
Jim Stewart, Yoemen half back, got the ball from Perrin at center and raced through center 9 yards. McLean then took the ball for a first down and was stopped on the 21 yard line. Smith then hit left tackle for no gain. A pass from Joe McLean to Davis was incomplete and on the next McLean kicked to Marlin's 48 yard line.

Marlin's Ball
Brown fumbled and lost 3 yards. J. B. Gilbert, sensational tackle got in the next play and stopped Brown with a 1 yard loss and Marlin drew a 5 yard penalty for off sides. Brown then went over four inches and on the next play kicked from his 35 yard line to Cameron's 34 yard line and out of bounds.

Cameron's Ball
McLean picked up 4 yards at right tackle. Smith then tried right tackle for no gain. A fumble then lost the Yoemen 1 yard. McLean then punted from his 40 to Marlin's 25 yard line.

Marlin's Ball
Brown kicked right back and Simmie Smith took the ball to the 50 yard line in a good return. It was a punting duel.

Cameron's Ball
A pass from Smith to Shirley McLean, right end was incomplete. Smith then passed to McLean for 20 yards and a first down. A pass Smith to McLean was blocked. Joe McLean then hit center for no gain. Two successive passes went for no gain and the ball went over.

Marlin's Ball
Brown hit right tackle for two yards. Brown then attempted to kick and his own men blocked it with a two yard loss. Brown then got off a kick to Smith who returned it to the 43 yard line as the half ended.

THIRD QUARTER
Marlin kicked off and Smith brought it back to the 38 yard line.

Cameron's Ball
Jimmie Stewart then got into the play and made 6 yards through center. On the next play the Milano flash got 12 yards through right tackle and a first down placing the ball in scoring position. On the next play, the combination of passes from Joe McLean to Simmie Smith that resulted in one of the touchdowns of the game, was begun. McLean dropped back and passed to Smith near the Bulldog's goal and the Yoemen back raced across for a touchdown. Ernis failed to make the extra point and the score was Cameron 6, Marlin 0. Cameron then kicked off to Marlin and Brown brought it back to the 50 yard line.

Marlin's Ball
Ogden tried center for no gain. Brown threw a pass and it was incomplete and Cameron got a 15 yard penalty for roughing. This gave Marlin their second first down of the game. On the next two plays Brown and Ogden failed to gain. The Yoemen line was holding fast. Brown kicked and Smith brought it back to the 29 yard line. Joe McLean went off tackle for 5 yards as the quarter ended.

FOURTH QUARTER
Marlin kicked to Cameron and Stewart returned it to the 30 yard line.

Cameron's Ball
Joe McLean went through center for 1 yard. A pass from McLean to Louie Turner was good for 1 yard. McLean then passed to Smith for a first down. Stewart went through center for 7 yards. Joe McLean then made it a first down and placed the ball on Marlin's 20 yard line. Smith then hit right tackle for 2 yards and Cameron got a 5 yard penalty for off sides. McLean then tried a pass to Frank Richter who had displaced Shirley McLean at right end. The pass was incomplete. Shirley twisted an ankle, and Richter playing his first game of the season was a sensation. Stewart was thrown for a loss on the next play and the ball was on the 38 yard line. A pass McLean to Smith was incomplete. Joe then dropped back and deliberately kicked the ball out of bounds on the 7 yard line.

Marlin's Ball
Brown kicked to Smith.

Cameron's Ball
Turner, half back, got the ball and gained 5 yards but Cameron was penalized 5 yards. Earl Peck, another backfield flash, went through right tackle for 10 yards placing the ball on the 24 yard line and making it a first down. Joe McLean failed to complete a pass and on the next play McLean shot a pass to Peck who went over for a touchdown. The good old toe of J. B. Gilbert made the extra point and the score was Cameron 13, Marlin 0. Cameron kicked off to Marlin and the Bulldogs returned it to the 38 yard line.

Marlin's Ball
Brown failed to complete a pass. He then passed to L. Williams and it was complete for 1 yard. John Davis made the tackle. Brown then circled right end for 6 yards and was stopped by Billy Triggs, sensational Yoemen tackle who turned in a great game as usual. Brown then kicked for only 5 yards. Cameron got the ball on Marlin's 45 yard line.

Cameron's Ball
Peck hit right end for 1 yard. A long pass from Smith to Gilbert was completed for a first down on Marlin's 20 yard line. Peck threw a pass that was incomplete. Peck then went through center for 5 yards. Turner then threw a pass that was incomplete. Turner then dropped back and threw a pass to Simmie Smith and it was good for a touchdown. Ernis failed to make the extra point and the score was Cameron 19, Marlin 0. Gilbert then kicked off to Brown who fumbled without loss.

Marlin's Ball
A pass to Brown was incomplete. Brown circled left end for five yards as the game ended.

Defective Eyes Hurt

There are some people in Milam County who dismiss glasses for the eyes as a fad or hobby. They say that nearly everybody nowadays need them but that they remember when very few people used them. They are correct, but they do not realize that when many of us forsook the fields and came indoors to work, using artificial light in our homes and reading much finer print that we began to do things that were not the custom in the old days.

There can be little doubt but that the changing system of living in the present era requires greater strain on the eye than that organ was in the habit of bearing. No wonder many of us have poor eyesight, resulting from strain or defective vision.

It is said that more than 2,000,000 school children suffer in their school work from improper vision. Very often students who fail to make the marks that their parents want them to make do so because of the condition of their eyes, which consciously or unconsciously, causes the pupil not to like to study.

The point of all of this is that somewhere in this county there may be a child, berated for indolence or ignorance, when the fault lies with the parents who have not realized the need of correct vision and have allowed the little boy or girl to go to school improperly equipped. Instead of being blamed the little pupil should be comforted and the parents themselves censured.

Now, if by chance, some parent reads this article, and thinks of a child, and corrects the defective vision of the child, then the space here used has not been wasted and we are glad to be able to call attention to the matter.

Cooperative Advertising

Many merchants, some of them in Cameron, are accustomed to think of advertising as a means of taking business from competitors instead of looking upon it as a proper method of stimulating sales of the commodities advertised. This is being illustrated forcefully in many national campaigns, where manufacturers of certain things have banded themselves into a national associations for the purpose, not of fighting the other man's product, but of selling the consumer the machine that both make.

The same idea should apply to local advertising. Merchants who advertise in the Cameron Herald do not necessarily compete for a minimum amount of business, which one must take from the other. Rather, it is true that their up-to-date advertising will create an impression throughout our shopping area and much business will come in—enough to give all worthwhile business a share.

Longer Week Ends

Intellects can tell you what you are by what you read; gourmets by how and what you eat; moralists by what you say; politicians by how you vote, and the recreationists by how you spend your week-ends. In week-ends nations mirror their character.

In the case of week-ending this will be more true in the future than in the past for we are in the process of making week-ends for more people and longer week ends for all people. The five day week promises to put the already large week end industry in the front rank of the largest industries.

What will we do with it? We have been partly prepared for it by four years of general unemployment and part-time work, four years in which a large part of the population has learned what leisure is.

There will be week end motoring. More building of cottages. More demand for suburban homes for quiet week ends. More excursioning. More business for resorts catering to week-end suburban communities.

Enders. More planting and gardening. Say what you will about the American as a spender, the fact remains that he is about as thrifty a mortal as this globe has produced to date. Not many of the five-day workers will be content sitting out the other two days. Odd jobs producing a little extra money will be at a premium and will put a large share of the country's initiative to work.

The week end was not made for fun in everybody's plan of living.

Do Your Trading at Home

The commercial growth of a community depends largely upon the extent of the stocks kept by its merchants. People do not come to a town to buy what the merchants do not sell. No merchant can enlarge his stocks until there is a demand for the goods. Merchandise bought from peddlers fail to create any demand.

Every local citizen should buy everything at home that is possible. Dollars sent away by money orders, or checks, seldom get back to home circulation. The carpenter who buys his tools by mail seldom thinks that a better business for the hardware merchant might mean more building activity. Every man and woman, working for a living in Cameron, depends upon the money kept at home for pay day prosperity.

Overeating

Expansive waist lines may be a mark of beauty in some countries but in America they are considered neither beautiful nor healthful. The public health service has never gone into the aesthetic phase of the question but its records are not encouraging to the overweight who are given to worrying about their health.

Keep that hour-glass figure if you would live long, is the advice of the service's statisticians. In the fight for good health being overweight is a distinct advantage in middle age.

The death rate in middle life is lower among persons who are under weight and increases rapidly as the weight increases beyond the normal. For example the death rate for persons between the ages of 40 and 49 who are 10 and 20 pounds underweight is just half that for persons between the same age limits but 50 or more pounds overweight.

For the conclusions of the public health service it would appear that lowering the mortality rate from this point is largely a matter of the diet and appetite control, which the government health agents will find more difficult than fighting germs and epidemics. You can teach a man to drink from a sanitary cup and to shun a suarantine sign but most persons cannot even be frightened away from the dinner table.

The Matanuska colonists have had to fight off a marine monster in the river, and again ask relief. No, no, boys—not another drop.

"One who goes before... to prepare the way for another"

HATS the dictionary's description of a pioneer... "one who goes before to prepare the way for another." ... What "way" was prepared? For whom? By whom? When? How? Words, in answer to these questions, can never picture the pioneering drama of transmission line service in Texas.

The way was prepared for the people to have low-cost, 24-hour electric service by the Texas Power & Light Company, in 1912, by means of transmission line electric service. That was what this Company set out to do when it was organized. That is what it has worked toward during the past 22 years. That is still its first objective today.

In 1912, Texas communities were in dire need of dependable, low-cost electric power. Hundreds of towns had no electric service. Isolated power plants could not supply this need economically.

The only answer was transmission line service. Building transmission lines in Texas, in 1912, was one of those things that "couldn't be done." They were new. They were untried and unproven except in one or two thickly settled areas in the East. Texas communities were small and widely scattered. It would require huge sums of money to build transmission lines and big generating stations. The very best engineering counsel would be required because those first transmission lines would become the foundation of a system of lines reaching out to many cities, towns, villages and farms. It was a job that could be done only by pioneering Texans who could see the necessity of "preparing the way for others."

The Texans who organized the Texas Power & Light Company saw all of these handicaps. They were driven to overcome them because they could see how transmission line electric service would benefit all the people of Texas. They dared to do that which "could not be done." They built the first transmission lines in Texas.

What is the result?

More than 300 Texas cities and towns are served by this Company's transmission lines today. Of that total number, 171 had no previous electric service. Industries have been established and are thriving in many of these places today. Opportunities are open for more industries in any of the communities having transmission line power service from the Texas Power & Light Company. More than 2,000 dirt farms have the same 24-hour electric service enjoyed by city people.

While these benefits have been accruing to the people because of TP&L transmission line service, its average cost to residential users has been lowered more than 35% during the past 10 years.

We wonder how the Yoemen felt at Marlin Friday night when they looked over the large crowd of Cameron fans who attended the game. Surely a feeling of pride surged through them when they realized that all of these enthusiastic lovers of sport had come to Marlin to back them, win or lose. Perhaps in a remote way, the twelfth man inspired our crippled team to defeat the Bulldogs.

Few students seem proud of our school. What other town of this size can boast of two modern brick buildings—one two stories and the other three stories high? Incidentally another building will be ready for use by January. With three brick buildings, large and attractive playgrounds and the best football field in our district we should realize that we have the best class B school system in the state. Why not let other people know that we are proud of our faculty, of our school, and of our football team?

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Rural students from Hoyte enjoyed Monday their first ride in a new school bus purchased by that locality from the local Ford Company.

Saturday night, September 28, the B Squad will meet the Sharp football team on the Yoe High field in what should be a very close game.

On Wednesday, September 18, W. C. Wiese, principal of the High School, distributed to the various home room teachers in the high school season football tickets for the home games. These tickets are now on sale to high school pupils at a price considerably lower than the aggregate cost of the individual home game tickets.

Louis Kubecka was elected at a regular weekly meeting of the Pep Squad to succeed John Evans as an assistant yell leader. John was forced to resign on account of his work outside of school.

Shirley McLean

Shirley McLean began his career in the Yoe High School four years ago. During his first year in high school he was a member of the Dramatic Club, and it was that year that he earned his nickname "Mamie." For the past three years he has played football and lettered once. He was elected president of the Junior class of 1934-35 and served as a worthy class president should.

THE STUDENTS OF '35 CONTINUE STUDY

In the meantime, Dorothea Kubecka, Frances McDermott and Nancy Newton are studying hard in C. I. A. to come back and teach school.

The two Bell girls, Lucille and Naomi, we find in nurse's training in the Cameron Hospital. Doris Cammer went to Temple to go into training to be a nurse.

While Ray Fanning and the boy next door, Harold Jackson, along with Hubert Foster, Gwendolyn Sanders, Caroline Porter and Nona Weems are all in Draughton's.

We wonder whether Ralph McLerran will remain at A. & M. since it is strictly a boy's school. Marcellus Drago is also there.

John Calvin Haygood went to Allen Academy, another boy's school.

Billy Gillis is at Schreiner at Ker-ville.

Thomas Marshall Hairston joined the navy. Anoy, there!

John Martin is a lad that it might be well to keep an eye on. We will probably find him a very important person in a few years. He is now at Rice.

Trent Newton is in John Tarleton. Rebecca Graham went aleat to Kentucky to go to Asbury.

Velma Reese is at Brownsville at the Junior College.

And in our own Yoe High we find Helen Baldwin, Clifton Cox, Margaret Lesiker, Theresa Manning, Billie Marek, George Matocha, Pauline Michalka, Rudolph Michalka, Imogene McLerran, Mildred Parma and Alice Rylander are post graduates.

As under-graduates we are proud of this group and believe that they are capable of making a success of any undertaking.

PEP RALLY FEATURE WEDNESDAY ASSEMBLY

The first pep rally of the year was the feature of the regular assembly period at Yoe High Wednesday morning, September 18. The rally was led by Rev. O. C. Acery, pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Cameron. The principal, W. C. Wiese, made a short talk followed by Rev. Acery and Coach L. C. Wood.

Louis Kubecka, who has replaced John Evans as an assistant yell leader, joined Frances Terry and Joe Ed Johnson in leading the yells. The pep squad and student body responded weakly at first, but grew more enthusiastic after a talk by Coach Wood.

The band, led by the director, Francis Cox, assisted in the rally, with Billy Wilson furnishing excellent bass for the last time this year.

A committee of three, Mary Ellen Cottle, Billie Marek and Alice Rylander, have been chosen to select one-act plays for the group, these to be presented for chapel programs during the year.

LITERARY LEAVES

The first theme of the year for the freshmen English classes was "My First Day in High School." They all felt conspicuous, according to their accounts, and all day long they were lost. Here is what several Freshmen had to say.

My First Day in High School

By Dorothy Jean Lewis

My first day in High School was "awful." When I arrived, the children were around the doors talking. I didn't know a person. I stood against the wall hoping mother would come for me and take me home. After I was assigned to a room, I couldn't find it. After looking for it about ten minutes I found it. An hour later I had to look for my locker. I went down to the basement looking for it, and finally found it on the third floor! After missing half of each lesson looking for rooms, I went home.

My First Day in High School

By Nell Vaughan

All feeling of triumph was gone when I entered school on September 9. Something I had to cope with lay ahead, even larger than my grades accomplished. But I was eager to get acquainted with each new study that I'd heard my sisters and friends speak so knowingly about. Then I had that feeling of right being among my old friends again and being jostled good naturedly in the class room and halls. I must not leave out the desire to see the new teachers and to learn what teachers might fall to my lot. The game of chance was always exciting!

My First Day in High School

By Caroline Chambers

My first day in High School was rather a felt to me. I had expected a lot of foolishness to agitate the freshmen, a lot of mischief and rowdiness. It was rather noisy, I have to admit, but nobody seemed to pay us much mind. Everyone appeared intent upon his or her own duties, and I tried to do the same as much as possible. It seemed very different from REAL school.

My First Day in High School

By Mary Elizabeth O'Neill

That morning I awoke and dressed with a joyful feeling, thinking of High School and what it would be like. I left home, and when we were just about there, the car ran out of gas, and I was afraid I would be late after getting up so early, but I managed to get there on time. I listened to a program, all the time was wondering how I would ever learn the floors and rooms. After the program we were told which room to go to, and they said that this was our home room. I could not imagine what this meant. The home room teacher gave me a slip of paper which told me the room to go to. My first period was the study hall and the second was latin, and instead of going into the study hall I went into the Latin room, where they were having history. I sat down and listened to them the whole period. I thought that I would never learn where to go.

YOEMEN TO MEET FRANKLIN LIONS

The Cameron Yoemen will meet the Franklin Lions on the Yoemen field Friday night at 8 o'clock. The Franklin starting lineup has not been received yet.

Last Friday night the Yoemen beat the Marlin Bulldogs 19-0 and hope to beat the Franklin boys with more scores than that. Coach L. C. Wood and his boys are working hard every afternoon.

This is the money he had left over after he took care of the bread and butter.

This is what he did with it.

This is the money he DIDN'T work for. It is called "interest." No matter how great a financier John Jones may become, he'll never learn anything more important than what he knows right now. The first lesson in finance is: make your money work for you.

Health Nurse Begins Work

The work of Miss Pearl Fulcro, public health nurse of Milam county, began here Monday of last week.

Miss Fulcro of Waco, comes well recommended from the state department of health. She was accompanied to Cameron by Miss Celia Moore, also of the State Department of Health, and who is assisting in the initial plans of the work.

A meeting is to be held soon for the purpose of organizing a public health committee. The scope of Miss Fulcro's work is not only in the common and independent schools, but is also in pre-natal, pre-school, and control of community diseases. Part of the plans at present are to spend one week out of each month in precincts of the county.

Miss Moore and Miss Fulcro have investigated the last 100 death certificates in his county. They showed much concern over the cases of tuberculosis in this county. Of the hundred cases examined, six died of tuberculosis and during 1935 fourteen tuberculosis patients have been sent to the state tuberculosis hospital.

UNDER THE COURT HOUSE DOME

By Berenice McLerran

One of the first steps to improve sanitary conditions in this county was taken in the court house by Miss Pearl Fulcro, the new Milam County health nurse, who took up her duties here Monday, September 16. She destroyed the two tin community drinking cups and had the corner where the large water barrel has stood for years at the west entrance scrubbed. Paper cups were placed for drinking. Miss Fulcro and others are hopeful that fountains will be secured in the near future.

The first week or so following the election here on August 24, it seemed like the "cap blew off the bottle" for intoxicating liquor drinkers. In Justice Court, the first week after the election, 10 cases for drunkenness were tried. It was stated at that time to be an unusual occurrence, due to so many at one time. From January, March and May grand jury indictments returned into district court there were only a few cases of driving while intoxicated. In July when the May term of the Grand Jury was recalled to convene, an increase was shown in the cases of driving while intoxicated. And this month the Grand Jury returned eight cases of driving while intoxicated, the most cases of this nature thus far reported into district court his year.

It seemed that as time drew nearer to the election, drinkers became bolder. Officers have expressed their anxiety over intoxicated drivers in the future.

The Sheriff is looking for the "Lady in Red." A nice looking young lady, a brunette, and wearing a red dress visited the court house this past week and used all her charms to sell the court house officials magazines. Anyway after the Lady in Red had left town, a local business woman turned over a "hot check" to the Sheriff which she had received from the lady. The check was made in the First National Bank at Temple to Nell Clay and bore the signature C. J. Freeman.

Since the tragedy here Sunday night in which the city night watchman, George Richards, was shot to death, citizens see again the dangers that peace officers incur while trying to enforce the law. One county official made this suggestion this week: "It would be a good thing if the city would appoint two nightwatchmen instead of one, and let the two men make the rounds together, always side by side, each night. Although it may be a little more expensive, it might possibly save the life of a man."

FUTURE FARMERS WIN AT WACO FAIR

The Cameron Agricultural exhibit, collected and exhibited by members of the Cameron Future Farmers Chapter, placed second at the Brazos Valley Fair at Waco Monday. Ten other Central Texas communities had entries in this division. The Cameron booth scored 937 points out of a possible 1000. Twenty-five crops were exhibited in the Cameron booth. An educational booth that was prepared by Charles Clifton Cox, A. W. Lucas and Dee Hitt, all F. F. A. members, placed seventh in competition with twelve others. This exhibit featured the feeding of balanced rations to hogs.

The fifty-five students of vocational agriculture at Yoe High cooperated in preparing the exhibits for the Waco Fair, and most of the products shown came from the home farms of the students.

The F. F. A. members also entered 85 individual entries in the F. F. A. and general agriculture divisions, but these have not yet been judged.

Those making the trip to Waco Monday to place the exhibits were: Bobby Batte, Bill Storey, James Leath, Cox, Lucas, Hitt and E. D. Parnell, teacher of vocational agriculture.

Mr. and Mrs. Ely Glass of Temple were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Glass here on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Warren and family visited in Waco Saturday.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO "BREAK IN" THE FORD V-8

You can drive it 50 miles an hour the day you buy it

THE FORD V-8 is ready for normal driving when you buy it. There is no tedious period of breaking-in for 500 or 1000 miles. You can drive it up to 50 miles an hour the first day. And after the first hundred miles you can drive it as fast as you desire.

That means greater motoring enjoyment for every motorist. It is especially important to motorists who are thinking about a new car for a vacation trip—to physicians, salesmen and all those who use a car for business. Instead of dragging along at slow speeds for days, you can make good time from the start.

The reason for this is as important as the result. The Ford V-8 needs no breaking-in because of unusual accuracy in the manufacture of moving parts and the smoothness of bearing surfaces. Clearances are correct when you buy the car. It is not necessary to depend on a long wearing-in period to eliminate tightness and insure smooth running. Longer life, greater economy and better performance are bound to result from such precision methods. The Ford V-8 gives you fine-car construction, along with fine-car performance, comfort, safety and beauty.

BURLINGTON PARISH SCHOOL IS OPENED

Last Monday morning St. Michael's Church, Burlington, was the scene of a solemn High Mass in the presence of Rev. C. E. Byrne, D. D., Bishop of Galveston. Mass was celebrated by Rev. T. F. O'Sullivan, the pastor who was assisted by Rev. A. J. Nicholson of St. Mary's church of Hempstead, as deacon and Rev. P. J. O'Reilly of St. Mary's church of Temple as sub-deacon. Rev. B. Roemer of Assumption church, Waco, was master of ceremonies. St. Michael's choir rendered the "Mass of the Angels" in a very praiseworthy manner.

After the Gospel, Most Rev. C. E. Byrne, D. D. addressed the congregation. His sermon was a very eloquent one from every standpoint. He congratulated the parishioners of St. Michael's parish. In his talk he stressed the value of "Christian Education," especially in the day when the minds of the children are being overpowered by the actions of those who are trying to take God and religion out of the souls of God-fearing people.

St. Michael's school is under the supervision of the three Sisters of the Incarnate Word, of Houston. Sisters were also present for the occasion from St. Mary's School in Temple and from the Santa Fe Hospital of the same city. Present in the sanctuary besides Rev. C. E. Byrne, D. D. were Rt. Rev. J. B. Gleissner of Bryan, Rev. George Apel, Cameron, Rev. B. Bravi, O. S. B., Bryan; Rev. R. P. Schertz, Westphalia; Rev. George Duda, Tours; Rev. J. T. Moriarty, Palestine; Rev. C. A. McNally, Lott; Rev. S. L. Kmiecik, Marlin; Rev. T. J. Valenta, Bryan; Rev. Michael Munar, T. O. R., Waco; Rev. John Domenge, T. O. R., Waco, and Rev. S. Rubi, T. O. R., Wichita Falls.

The women of the parish who deserve much praise, served a splendid dinner to the clergy after Mass.

A plate and ice cream supper will be given at the South Elm church Friday night for the benefit of the church. Everyone is invited.

SPORTS

The seventh grade looks forward to a powerful eleven this year although several of their former players are in the band and will not be able to play. The team will have many trick plays and expect to make at least one touchdown when they play the 8th grade later in the season.

Some new equipment has been bought for the playground. Two baseballs have been issued to each playground teacher and one volleyball for the whole school. We expect to get some new bats soon.

BAND

The Band played for a pep rally Wednesday morning in the High School auditorium. They played several pep songs and two marches. This is the band's third appearance since the opening of school.

They marched announcing the ball game between the women, and marched announcing the sale of season tickets.

Although the band is a high school band this year, there seems to be a majority of grammar school pupils in it. The seventh grade boasts of more players than any other grade by having eight. Those in the band from Ada Henderson are Willard Skelton, Sam Bill Law, James Brock, Jim Baskin, Roy Dunlap, Tom Hobson, Dana Monroe, Neill Horstmann, Grady Baskin, Morris Eplen, D. L. Lindsey, Joe Bill White, Billie Balhorn and Dick Slocumb.

Agent Tells About Cotton Loan Basis

Modification of the new cotton loan plan was announced by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. The objective of the Administration has been to get an average return of at least 12 cents per pound basis 7-8 middling, for the producers of cotton. The plan announced last week was modified, one change making it possible for each producer of cotton to know on marketing his cotton the total amount he will receive for it. The new plan proposes a loan of 10 cents per pound on 7-8 low middling or better. The total received by growers of cotton which does not command premiums cannot exceed 12 cents per pound, so long as the base price is below 12 cents per pound. Instead of making the adjustment payment on the basis of the four months average of 10 spot markets, this adjustment payment will now be based on the daily average of the 10 markets. In other words, the adjustment payment will be made on the basis of the 10 spot market average on the actual day that the cotton is sold by the producer. These adjustment payments will be made through the cotton year up to August 1, 1936. As before stated they will be made to those producers who have cooperated in the adjustment program and who agree to participate in the 1936 crop program. Adjustment payments to cotton farmers will be limited to 2 cents per pound. If it should develop that prices drop below 10 cents—a highly improbable contingency—producers would be expected to put their cotton in the loan and wait for prices to recover. Loans and payments will be restricted to actual production not in excess of the Bankhead allotment. This program for loans and adjustment payments on the 1935 crop will go into effect as soon as it is physically possible to set up the necessary machinery. The loan forms probably will be available for the 10 cents loan during the week of September 2. The adjustment payments will apply to all sales of 1935 cotton, including those already made.

Cotton producers who may wish to sell their cotton immediately and whose crop is already being harvested and ginned for sale are urged by the Agricultural Administration to obtain and keep sales slips from buyers, so as to be sure to have adequate sales records on which the Government will be able to make adjustment payments under the new loan and payment plan. The necessary forms upon which payments of the difference between the average price and 12 cents will be disbursed are being prepared. In the interim producers who desire to market their crop are advised to compile a careful record which will include a description of the cotton sold, the date of sale and the names of the parties, including tenants, who have an interest in the cotton sold. It is especially important that producers should obtain from the buyer a memorandum of sale which contains the date of sale and the gross weight of the bale or bales sold.

It is expected that checks will be delivered to producers approximately December 15, 1935, and March 15, and August 15, 1936, depending on the date the application is signed. The information will be checked in the county and admitted at College Station. It is proposed that a disbursing section will be set up in Texas, thereby saving much time.

Washington News For Milam County Farmers

From Cameron Herald's Washington Bureau

FARM INCOME.
SMALL WHEAT CROP.
GETTING RECOGNITION.
COTTON AND POTATOES.

Benefit payments to farmers for the calendar year 1935, as estimated by officials, will reach around $6,000,000,000.

They are based upon the processing taxes, the prevailing idea being that the general public does not object to paying the amount necessary to assure farmers of a higher income than they received in the bad years. It has been estimated that each family pays around $16 a year because of the processing taxes.

The money distributed to the farmers was $396,425,308 in 1934, and only $131,076,487 in 1933. If the processing taxes are held unconstitutional the funds will have to come from other taxation and there is not much relish for the idea anywhere.

Figures compiled by the bureau of Agricultural Economics, recently released, placed the farmers' income for this year at $6,700,000,000. Last year it was about $300,000,000 less, in 1933 just above five billion and in 1930 only $5,328,000,000.

Back in 1929 the farm income reached a peak of $10,479,000,000. So it is easy to see that there is a bit of a climb for the future if farm income is to reach its former levels.

The smallest combined wheat crop since 1904, except in the drought year 1934, has been forecast by the crop reporting board, which predicts a yield of only 594,615,000 bushels.

This is some 3,000,000 bushels less than the average domestic consumption but nearly a hundred million bushels ahead of last year. At prevailing prices, however, the crop will return to growers around $200,000,000 more than the harvest last year.

Domestic consumers will have an ample supply of wheat as there is about 130,000,000 bushels held in storage.

It is gratifying to see an occasional recognition of vital importance of farm prosperity to the welfare of the nation's industry and commerce.

Metropolitan newspapers recently pointed out that the deflation culminating in the 1933 bank panic, brought about a decline of 30 per cent in the value of manufactured goods but a drop of 62 per cent in prices of farm products.

Naturally the purchasing power of the millions of people dependent upon agriculture was reduced to almost nothing and there was no market for many manufactured articles.

Since 1933 farm products have nearly doubled in value while manufactured goods have gone up only about 30 per cent, thus wiping out some of the disparity and establishing a much better economic balance in the country.

Present indications are that the cotton crop will be much more than last year, but well below the recent average production. The last estimate was 11,489,000 bales and this is expected to cause a substantial reduction in the present 9,000,000 bale carry over.

News of interest to cotton growers is that Liverpool cotton buyers are turning again to American cotton, after various experiences with other growths. The Brazilian crop this year is not estimated to equal the 1,900,000 bales produced last year by probably one-fourth.

Machinery to start the potato program on December 1st, is being set up and administration costs will have to be met from some special source because the appropriation for the purpose died with the bill killed by the Long filibuster.

By November 1st the Secretary of Agriculture must proclaim National and State allotments, and while there is no limit to the quantity that may be produced, there is a tax of three-fourths of a cent a pound, or 45 cents a bushel, on sales above the allotted. The AAA finds little flexibility in the potato measure, which it did not sponsor but which it must now carry out. Protests have been heard and there have been heard and there have been some replies from the defense. After a year the act will not continue unless approved by two-thirds of the producers.

COMMENT ON SPORTS

ALLISON REGAINS TOP.
WILMER ERRATIC PLAYER.
MISS JACOBS WINS.
PERRY A BENEDICT.
ALABAMA ON SPOT.
CAMPBELL REACHES GOAL.
MACK'S TROUBLE SERIOUS.
FANS REMAIN HOME.
BOSY WANT STARS.
LITTLE WINS AGAIN.
TROSKY FINDS REMEDY.

The American entries did manage to regain the men's title in the national singles tennis tourney at Forest Hills this year, but it was Wilmer Allison, the celebrated in and out from Texas, who turned the trick and not youthful Donald Budge, who was conceded the best chance for dethroning Fred Perry. Allison fought his way to the finals by licking Perry himself in straight sets in the semi-final round. Then on the following day he took Sidney Wood into camp, also straight sets for the title. Budge had fallen at the hands of Grant who was later defeated by Wood in the semi-final match.

By this astounding comeback, Allison takes all claim to the most erratic player title. Wilmer had all but dropped completely out of tennis competition after his disappointing exhibitions in the Davis Cup this year, and it was not thought likely that he would last more than one round or two at Forest Hills. However, Allison, and not Budge or Wood or Mako or Grant, took advantage of Perry's being out of condition, and quickly regained the top honored position in United States tennis. The victory may give Allison another chance in the Davis Cup matches next year, although it isn't likely that he will be used in both doubles and singles. Whether or not he is a member of the singles forces will probably be decided after Donald Budge shows what he has in early season competition next year.

Again Miss Helen Jacobs won the top singles honors in the Forest Hills women's matches. This time, however, it was Mrs. Sarah Pahlfrey Fabryan whom she was forced to down in the final battle. Miss Jacobs, with Helen Wills Moody apparently out of the picture for keeps, is once again the Queen of Tennisdom. Miss Kay Stammers and other British entries went down in defeat in the Forest Hills matches, leaving little doubt in the minds of the experts as to just who belongs at the top of the ranking list.

After the matches had been completed, Fred Perry ended all rumor concerning his engagement to Miss Helen Vinson, screen star, by wedding the actress at Harrison, N. Y. The columnists of New York and Hollywood will now have to find a new couple to marry several times a week via the rumor route. Their romance is said to have begun in England, where Perry still remains the tops in the court and racket profession.

With the football season now just about under way, interest naturally is turned toward Alabama, the eleven that startled the football world in the first day of the present year by showering passes all over the Rose Bowl to send the strong Stanford team down to a crushing defeat. It is not expected that Alabama will even approach its great record of 1934 when Dixie Howell led the boys through a defeatless season. Naturally the team this year is on the spot, which means that the newcomers will have a particularly tough time of filling in for Bill Lee, Dixie Howell, Don Hutson, Joe Demyanovich and other departed members of the eleven. The regular schedule, though it consists strictly of battles with opponents from South of the Mason-Dixon line, is no easy one. It includes Howard, George Washington, Mississippi State, Tennessee, Georgia, Kentucky, Clemson, Georgia Tech, and Vanderbilt.

Sir Malcolm Campbell has at last reached the goal set for himself some time ago—300 m. p. h. in his Bluebird racer. After failing to reach that mark in numerous attempts at Daytona Beach, Florida, he decided to try the salt flats adjoining the Great Salt Lake, which proved to be just the place for his successful efforts. At first it was announced by those checking up on the instruments after the attempt that he had failed to reach the coveted mark, even though he had bettered his previous mark of 276.816 m. p. h. by more than 23 miles. Sir Malcolm, who cared little about bettering the record if it was not over 300 p. m., sadly shook his head and announced that he would try it all over again. However, hours later the American Automobile Association sent word to him hurriedly that it had discovered a mistake in the figures, and that his real accomplishment was that of driving at a 301.1292 clip. Sir Malcolm and his Bluebird are en route to their homeland, England.

Up in Philadelphia the American League baseball situation is becoming serious. The Athletics, studded with Mackian raised stars, have little pitching, if any. Only Turbeville, of the younger group appear really promising, and he is just nineteen. The old timers are waning. The fans, realizing that their team, the best in the league, has no pitching to back it up, are staying away from Shibe Park in such alarming numbers that Connie Mack may have to resort once again to selling his stars in order to keep the financial situation of the club from becoming so deep in the red that league action would be necessary. This time it is rumored that Tom Yawkey, owner of the Red Sox, realizing that the recent rise of the Tigers and Chisox is due largely to their Philadelphia acquisitions, is hot on the trail of Jimmie Foxx, Pinky Higgins and Doc Cramer. And the rumor is also quite current up in the Quaker City that Mack is quite ready to listen to the offers of the richest owner in baseball.

Now the fans in Quakertown are already kicking about any such deal, alleging that Connie of the old school isn't playing fair with them. And yet there has been no definite uptrend in attendance. As soon as the fans begin turning out to games, the rumors concerning the trading of the three stars will fall by the wayside. Until then, however, the boys will be on the block.

There is no doubt that Foxx, Higgins and Cramer would help Joe Cronin's gang. Mack claims that the three aren't hustling for him, but that should be remedied with a young manager like Cronin at the helm of their affiliation. Foxx would become the best guardian of the initial sack the Hub fans could ask for. Babe Dahlgren is a flashy fielder but a weak and far from dangerous hitter. Higgins would be head and heels better than the slipping Werber, and Doc Cramer would make Yawkey and Cronin forget that Moose Soliers is blasting the daylight out of the ball at St. Looney.

W. Lawson Little, the nearest thing to Bobby Jones since the latter's retirement from amateur golf, won his fourth consecutive national amateur at Cleveland in defeating Walter Emery 4 and 2. Two of the above mentioned titles were American titles and the other two were gained on British shores. Little has all the earmarks of Jones in match play. If the Californian were the medal player of the type of Jones or Sarazen, who knows but what he would score a grand slam similar to that of Bobby Jones in 1930. Jones in that year won the four major titles of the year, the British Amateur and Open, and the American Amateur and Open. And Jones himself now believes that Little would be a successful medal player if he could concentrate on his low scoring rounds. Such predictions as that coming from Jones ought to have weight with Little, and it wouldn't be at all surprising to see W. Larson, ere long, take his medal play seriously enough to become an outstanding competitor in various open tourneys.

Last week while attending a double header between Cleveland and Washington, we noticed, much to our wonderment, that Hal Trosky, for the first time in his major league career, was batting right handed. However, throughout the remainder of the double header Hal continued to bat from the right side of the plate against the wrong armed pitchers and left handed against the right handed twirler Ed Linke. The scorer credited Hal that day with five hits including a homer and three singles right handed and a long double left handed. Mr. Trosky is now kicking himself for not thinking of returning to his minor league switch hitting idea earlier in the season. The new idea may save the big first baseman from returning to the minors in 1936.

A NEW SEA SERPENT!

Boston, Mass.—The crew of the fishing schooner Imperator, 23 in all, avow that they saw a 70 foot eel-like sea monster with a crocodile-like head twenty feet out of the ocean. It swam along the surface like a water snake.

Man may have more endurance in some ways, but he can't dance until 2 a. m. when his feet are killing him.

Officer Slain

few moments after the shooting the body was turned over. He was still breathing, but life was almost extinct. Richards carried a 38 Colt double action revolver. It was found in his open left hand. Officers said a witness had placed it there but with no intention to show it had been used. It was said to have fallen from the scabbard when the body was turned over. The night watchman's clock was found about six feet from the body.

Ambulance Arrives

Leland Green of the Green Funeral Home was called. He arrived and found Richards dead. He lay face upward a few feet from the curb, the head toward the center of the street. In his open left hand was a revolver, later identified as that of the dead officer. Richards was right handed. The body was removed shortly after the ambulance arrived. It was taken to the morgue and there physicians examined it. Dr. W. R. Newton, Jr., and Dr. Leland Denson, probed for bullets. It was found they could not be located and the body was taken to the Cameron Hospital for X-ray and the bullets located. It was brought back to the morgue and the bullets removed.

Hill Surrenders

Sheriff Kennedy said that Hill called him to surrender. The Sheriff had been called to the city's edge to quell some kind of disturbance at a dance. Hill is said to have called the jail residence of the sheriff and was told the officer had left for the designation mentioned. Hill then called the number and according to Kennedy said: "I have just killed George Richards and want to surrender." Sheriff Kennedy came immediately to the cafe where Hill awaited him. The sheriff stopped near the body of the dead officer and gave instructions that no one touch the slain man until the coroner could be summoned. Leland Green, in the time that had lapsed between his summons and appearance at the scene of the shooting, had called Justice Womack Brashear who conducted a short inquiry and turned the body over to the undertaker. Hill, a moment after Sheriff Kennedy stopped near the body of Richards, stepped to the door of his cafe and said: "Here I am, Sheriff. Come and get me." Sheriff Kennedy then placed Hill under arrest, took his gun from which 5 shells had been discharged and locked him in the county jail.

Witness Picks Up Gun

Roy Barrett of Yarrellton, a witness to the killing, is said to have picked up the dead officer's gun after it had fallen from the scabbard as the body was turned over, according to officers. When told to release the gun, he said he unconsciously placed it in the open left hand of the slain policeman. Officers expressed the opinion that Richards had not drawn his pistol, and examination showed no shot had been fired from it.

District Attorney Busy

Shortly after the shooting Criminal District Attorney Emory B. Camp, in co-operation with Sheriff Kennedy, Deputy Sheriff Clarence McCall, Constable R. F. Bailey, Justice Womack Brashear and Gene Smith, city marshal, began assembling facts and to question witnesses. Throughout the day Sunday the inquiry continued. In the meantime Hill was in jail with no date up to Tuesday, set for court hearing. It was understood that Hill had expressed a desire to waive examining trial but would attempt to make bond. At his office Wednesday afternoon, District Attorney Camp told the Herald he had no statement to make regarding the case at that hour but added, "You may quote me as saying I am going to prosecute Hill to the limit of the law and my ability."

Hill Makes No Statement

In the Milam County jail, Hill had made no statement for publication, relative to the matter. His aged father and brother, had visited him several times in the jail. DeWitt Bowmar of Temple has been retained as counsel for Hill and it is understood that an effort was being made to obtain bail and arrange for his release. Up to noon Wednesday no hour had been set for the examining trial, it was announced by Justice Brashear.

Richards Succeeded Cooke

George Richards succeeded Will Cooke as fire marshal and night policeman. Richards had held the job from 1922 to 1924 and was also Deputy City Marshal. He was employed recently by the council. It was not known whether any previous trouble had arisen with Hill. Facts relating to the trouble were being held by the officers and District Attorney.

highly esteemed by the people of Cameron.

George Richards was born in Bartow county, Georgia, on September 19, 1879. He came to Texas with the family and settled near Yarrellton. He moved to Cameron 14 years ago and became deputy city marshal. He was married to Miss Tillie Eanes on December 25, 1923. He was a member of San Andres Lodge A. F. & A. M. and was also a member of the Baptist church. The Masons gave the slain officer a Masonic funeral.

His mother, Mrs. Mary Richards, 89 years of age, was always with his tender care, living in his home. She and her son had celebrated their birthdays together on September 19. He is survived by his widow and two small daughters, Hazel Ruth and Georgia Lee. Two brothers and seven sisters survive also, as follows: Mrs. M. W. Price, Mrs. Willie Fagg, Mrs. Annie Weems, Cameron; Mrs. Fannie Collins, Oxford, Alabama; Mrs. W. B. Walden, Liberty; Mrs. Lucy Clifton, Ben Arnold; Mrs. Mamie Fuller, Yarrellton; A. B. Richards of North Elm and Virge Richards of Minerva.

A wealth of floral offerings came from a wide circle of friends. Pallbearers were: J. L. Barmore, J. S. Bragg, George McGehee, Jr., Grady Allen, W. H. Lucas and Carroll Gibbs.

Works Progress To Allot $50,000 To Milam County

The sum of $50,000 for lateral roads has been allotted by the federal government, it was learned from news dispatches from Washington Sunday.

To this sum is to be added about $34,000 by Milam County. The projects approved are as follows: Road from Ad Hall to San Gabriel and thence to Thorndale through Norman Valley. Government aid $11,216, county $7,245.

Improvement of road from Cameron to Yarrellton, federal $20,167, county $12,074.

Tracy to Davilla road federal $16,372, county $14,616.

Funds required of the county will be paid for by the Commissioner precinct funds in lease of equipment. County Auditor C. R. Isaacs said that the county would have to buy an asphalt spreader and that would be about the extent of cash required.

11 Inch Ears Is Horton Corn Size

Rudolph Strutz, farmer in the Cameron territory, brought to the Herald office last week four ears of corn now on display.

This corn was produced on his farm and is the first of its kind to come to the attention of this newspaper. It is the Horton variety and one of the ears measures 11 inches, but all are of uniform length. It is a white corn and well developed.

Mr. Strutz believes this variety is well adapted to the soil and climate of his county.

Liquor Cases Are Dismissed Here

Because of the adoption on August 24 of the amendment to the state constitution, repealing the prohibition, liquor cases against N. J. Green and Mrs. Dave Crain of Rockdale and Jack Owings, Jr., of Cameon, were dismissed in district court here this week.

The cases were dismissed as follows: Mrs. Crain, maintaining a common nuisance, purpose of liquor for sale; Jack Owings, Jr., possession of intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale, maintaining a common nuisance, sale and possession of intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale; N. G. Green maintaining a common nuisance.

Grand Jury Acts

These men were operating under federal licenses when their bars were raided in March. Just a few hours after the March grand jury convened it issued search warrants and warrants of arrest. A large amount of liquors were obtained from Green, Crain and Owings. When the raid was made on the home of Mrs. Crain she attempted suicide by drinking carbolic acid.

Green Tried

N. J. Green was tried in March for one of his liquor cases but was acquitted. His brother, Ed Green, whose place was also raided in March was charged also with maintaining a common nuisance and possession of intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale. Cases against him were called in court on March 28, but he did not answer and his bond was forfeited. Up to this time, he has not made his appearance in court. Upon request of the district attorney, Emory B. Camp, this week, dismissal held open in the cases of Ed Green.
